TERRIBLE ACCIDENT ON THE MEISOPOLITAN BRANCH AT WARING-TWO TRAINS COLLIDE-

There was a frightful railroad smash-up on the Matropolitan branch of the Baltimore and the Matropolitan branch of the Baltimore and this railroad at 4.10 yearserder afternoon. Ohio railroad at 4:10 yesterday afternoon, tomorrow. The accident happened shout 26 miles from this city, between Gaithersburg and Germanthis city, between Gaithershorg and Garman-town, and was occasioned by carelessness or negligence on part of one of the railtoad em-ployes. The sad result of the collision was only a repetition of past events when two trains going in opposite directions have tried to pass each other on the same track. The result of this accident was the instant killing of three men and the wounding of three others, one of whom in all probability will die.

The trains that collided were No. 1, which known as the St. Louis and Cincinnati exore, at 2:30 and this city an hour as in charge of Conductor George Petcord. Curtis E. Elliott, who was familiarly own as "Curt" Elliott, was engineer, with G. Miller, fireman. S. G. Burdette and H. Peacock were postal clerks on the train. This train was made up of the engine, bargage and postal cars, two vestibuled coaches and two Ingineer Henry Groff of the freight and Fireman W. G. Miller of the express were also inseed, but they were rescued before the estand.

That the borses have been keyed up was proven by the fact that five out of six of the events were pulled off by favorites. The great and only McLaughlin was on hand and scored up his first victory for the season, piloting Madstone under the wire in the mile run. He received would burn, leaving a mass of red hot iron and steel as well as the askes on the bodies of the two men.

The iron being too hot to handle the members of the wrecking crew could not make much headway, and the track will probably not be cleared until this afternoon.

The tracks were twisted and torn from the road beds in such a manner that they will have to be taken up and relaid or new ones put down, and it is therefore probable that no trains will be able to get through before late this evening or tomorrow morning.

The amount of damage to the company's property cannot be estimated, but it will be very heavy. The mail in the cars was almost destroyed by the fire, and among the missing mail is a package of registered letters, most of which he doubt, contained sums of money.

A VIOLATION OF ORDERS THE CAUSE.

The railroad people say that the accident was the result of a violation of the rules of the road as well as of the particular orders sent out for the guidance of the freight trains must clear the track and gogen a siding at least ten minutes before the time the passenger train is due.

what the passences on the express train are under the impression that the engineer of the passenger train jumped when he saw the collision was inevitable and thereby escaped immediate death. A Washington lady who was on the train told a Star reporter today that as soon as she recovered from the shaking up she hurried out of the car and saw the engineer sitting on a pile of lumber, holding his head in his hands. He was taken into the Pullman car and cared for.

She said, also, that the passengers behaved admirably and the men went to work with a will to save the property. It was owing to their exertions that some of the cars and baggage were saved. Had the men been divided into detachments, one to look after the injured and the other the baggage. All of the latter, she said, could have been saved. There were too many people trying to do the same thing-connected and that Conductor Amey had skipped.

The impression which prevailed among the relired men that Conductor Amey had skipped.

The Alton elevator at 2d and Lydis streets at the recing should be good and the crowd large.

Following is the program for teday:
First race—One-half mile. Warpun, Oppressor, Equator, Kingdom, Black Huzzar, Forrest, Beverwyck, Our Own and Thiers L., 110 each.

Second race—Six furlongs. Baltimore, 100; Horence, 96: Logan, 100: Martel, 106; Hypatica and Vintage Time filly, 95 each; Fercese, 95; Elia H. gelding, 106; George W. impression which prevailed among the ad men that Conductor Amey had skipped the accident was dispelled this morning, the wreckers found his dead body beneath the mass of wreckage. It turned out that he was on the engine with Engineer Groff when the crash came.

The wreckers also found another body, which was either Elliott or Murphy, but the body was charred and burned beyond recognition.

BUT LITTLE MAIL MATTER HAVED. Shortly after the collision took place Superintendent Vickery of the railway mail service of this division was notified and he at once dis-patched Transfer Clerk Atkinson to the scene. When he arrived he found the wreck on fire and but little of the mail saved. With the help of some of the railroad employes he succeeded in getting out about one bushel of the letter in getting out about one bushel of the letter mail and about ten sacks of government docu-ments. All of the paper and registered mail was destroyed. Fortunately this was not large. In a little section house the dead body of Postal Clerk S. G. Burdette was found, burned and scalded beyond recognition. He was later sent to his home at West Grafton. M. W. Pearegular clerk in the service. He was appointed some time ago acting clerk in the place of Postal Clerk Alexander Leeds, who was injured cat' freight, an engine and one car, failed to obey orders and side track his train and the reservice at the end of this month.
